Guidelines for managing malpractice & other extraordinary situations during

End semester/Makeup examinations (with effect from Academic Year 2024-25)

Level	Definition (Type)	Punishment/Action
0	Termination of the paper due to medical emergency.	Cancellation of the paper, if requested by the student. 'I' grade shall be awarded to the subject in such cases.
1	Possession of mobile phone or any other electronic gadget (without examination related material either in switch ON or OFF mode), attempts to elicit answers from neighbours ignoring the warning, allowing fellow students to copy from one's answer book ignoring warning etc.	'F' grade shall be awarded to the subject. The student is allowed to write the paper in the immediate makeup examination.
2	Carrying exam related material excluding data provided in the formula book, on paper or electronic form (mobile phone, smartwatch with memory & Bluetooth, programmable calculator with memory and provision to connect to other devices), accessing internet resources for help, examination related material scribbled on the parts of body, desk, hall tickets, calculators, etc., exchanging answer sheet/other materials which are of assistance in the examination.	Invalidation of whole semester examination. 'F' grade shall be awarded in all subjects. The student is allowed to write all the papers in the immediate makeup examination.
3	Sending the question paper or a part of the same through social media/AI tools during examination and/or receiving answers to the questions to the electronic devices/cell phone.	Invalidation of whole semester examination. 'F' grade shall be awarded in all subjects. Suspension from the institute for a maximum duration of 3 months.
4	Repeated offence	Invalidation of whole semester examination. 'F' grade shall be awarded in all the subjects and the student is not allowed to appear for the respective paper in the immediate makeup exam, if the repeated offence comes under Level 1 or Level 2. If the repeated offence comes under Level 3, the student will be suspended for 3 months in addition to the actions mentioned above.
5	Impersonation, threatening exam officials or fellow students, destroying answer papers, disrupting examination	Debarring from examination for up to one year based on the recommendation by the enquiry committee.

Note: In all the above malpractice cases, the department shall report the same immediately to the Associate Director (Academics). The enquiry shall be done at the Department with a nominee by the Associate Director (Academics)
